SYNOPSIS

An optimistic golfer meets the girl and outwits the rival who is the landlord collecting his rent of the poor mother who cannot pay it. Later, in a street brawl, after the crowd has scattered, he finds a detective badge. This he dons. The rival jealous pesters him and beats him up, but he is saved by the police chief. There is a reward offered for one Steve Brewer's capture. At a big ball, the golfer again meets the girl and there is a happy reunion, but the rival interferes. The golfer accidentally happens upon the brewers under the ball room floor, and scares them with his badge. The rival, angry and jealous, calls for his gallant brewers, and they attack the poor golfer. In the end, however, the golfer wins the girl, and also the reward offered for the capture of the bootlegger, who happens to be the rival, but only after harrowing scenes of riot, confusion and broken heads.
